Campus Sustainability Day Event hosted by Emory Recycles
October 23rd Asbury Circle, 11am-2pm

Upcycle an old T-shirt with a “Green” message. Danger Press will be at Asbury Circle, October 23rd for Campus Sustainability Day.

How does it work?
1. Bring on old T-shirt from your collection or, pick from Emory Recycles T-shirt donations (women’s and men’s sizes XS, M, L, XL available).
2. Choose one of the 5 “green” messages/designs below. You can alter or manipulate it to your liking.
3. Danger Press’s Live event printing will do the rest, transforming your T-shirt into something new!

Space Heater Round-up

Space heaters are intensive energy users, present safety hazards, and impact the temperature calibration of our buildings.

Did you know?

- Emory has banned the purchase of space heaters with Emory funds.
- All units of Finance & Administration are prohibited from using space heaters.
- Facilities Management will not service units with space heaters running.
- Please visit http://sustainability.emory.edu/page/1010/Energy-Awareness for more information.

If you have a space heater in your office or dorm room, please bring it to one of our collection locations for donation to the American Kidney Fund

Collection Locations:

- ATO Fraternity House, 12 Eagle Row. Follow signs to drop off around the back of the house.
- Goizueta Business School, Copy Room 430.
- 1762 Clifton Rd., Suite 1600 (back of building with blue awning).
