An evening of mingling, food & FUN! “Face-to-face conversation really DOES help to achieve clarity and vision around career choices! A stellar event.”

Emory’s 7th Annual Green Networking Night

Introductory Keynote by: Gwendolyn Keyes Fleming Chief of Staff, US EPA (Emory Law, ’93)

CURIOS? Come meet and explore with 65+ alumni & friends showcasing a variety of environmental/sustainability-related organizations & career paths!

• Environmental Consulting
• Public Health
• Environmental Law
• Conservation
• Marketing
• Communications

• Clean Energy
• Corporate Sustainability
• Ecology
• Green Building
• Government
• Research

• Policy
• Ecotourism
• Transportation
• Environmental Education
• Urban Planning
• ...and more!

Thursday, November 20th
7-8:30 pm, Cox Hall Ballroom
(*early student sign-in begins @ 6:45 pm)

Sponsored by: ■ The Career Center ■ Office of Sustainability Initiatives ■ Department of Environmental Sciences ■ Emory Alumni Association & Blue & Gold Make Green ■ Living Green: Sustainability in the 21st Century ■ Turner Environmental Law Clinic, Emory Law School ■ Environmental Law Society ■ Department of Environmental Health, Rollins School of Public Health

For tips on making the most of the event & to receive an advanced Guest Directory, visit: http://tinyurl.com/exploregreencareers or scan here: