Position: Sustainable Food Intern

Available to: FWS and non-FWS students; Graduate students

Term: Fall 2016

Position Description:
OSI and Emory Dining are currently seeking a qualified FWS or non-FWS student to fill an important role working on sustainable food initiatives at Emory. Intern responsibilities will be primarily associated with the weekly Emory Farmers Market held every Tuesday from 11 am to 3 pm on the Cox Hall Bridge. A candidate for this position will be available for the majority of this time on these days to be able to assist with market programming, social media and operations. Farmers Market-related duties will include developing weekly communications through MailChimp and social media, assessing best practices at other local markets, planning monthly seasonal events, and supporting initiatives to further the accessibility of the market to Emory students, faculty, and staff. This position may also include facilitating sustainable waste management practices and other food-related sustainable programs conducted by OSI and Emory Dining in the Dining Halls, as well as assisting with the Educational Garden Project communications and programming. Interns are expected to work between 10 and 15 hours per week if non-FWS and 8 hours each week if FWS students.

Desired Qualifications:
- Friendly and task-oriented
- Strong writing & communication skills, including social media promotion
- Creativity in event-planning, communications and marketing
- Interest in sustainability, especially sustainable & local food
- Comfortable working independently with regular check-ins on activity and progress
- Availability on Tuesdays

Eligibility:
All undergraduate and graduate students enrolled at Emory University for Fall 2016 are invited to apply. All majors are welcome, but those seeking experience in a field related to sustainability are preferred.

To Apply:
Submit your resume, a cover letter and your general availability to Taylor Spicer at tspicer@emory.edu by noon on Wednesday, August 31.

In your resume/cover letter, please:
- Discuss any experiences that have shaped your interest in sustainability and food
- Indicate why you are interested in working with this program
- Explain how the internship will contribute to your academic and professional development
