

Emory Farmers Market

OSI and Emory Dining

Every Tuesday from 11am to 3pm

Cox Hall Bridge

The market serves as a gathering place for the Emory community and offers an opportunity to connect Emory students, faculty, and staff with local Georgia farmers and makers. All are welcome to learn more about sustainable production systems and healthy eating.

Emory WaterHub Tours

OSI

Tuesdays at 11:30am, Wednesdays at 1:00pm and Thursdays at 3:00pm

WaterHub Facility

Learn about Emory's award-winning WaterHub in weekly, student-led tours. The facility is the first of its kind in the nation and uses biomimicry, engineered processes which emulate those utilized in nature, to clean the water. Individuals, classes, departments, committees and groups are welcome every Tuesday and Wednesday this Spring. Please sign up to reserve your spot!

Activities Calendar

Tibet Week 2017

Emory-Tibet Partnership

Monday, 3/20 through Friday, 3/25/2017

Carlos Museum Reception Hall

In partnership with the Carlos Museum, the Emory-Tibet partnerships celebrates Tibet Week with an array of talks, demonstrations and a special exhibit. See all events here.

Earth Month Festival

OSI

Tuesday, 3/28/17 from 11:30am-2:00pm

Asbury Circle

Come out to our official Earth Month Festival to make S'mores in a solar oven, meet local environmental organizations and engage in games and conversations with campus groups.

Women's Leadership Conference

Georgia Tech, Historic Academy of Medicine

Saturday, 4/1/2017 from 8:30am-4pm

Georgia Tech's 18th Annual Women's Leadership Conference will feature a keynote, workshops, a networking fair, discussions, and included breakfast, lunch, and a dessert reception. For more information and to register, click here.

Southface Public Tour

Southface Energy Institute

Wednesday, 4/5/2017 at 10am

Southface Eco Office - 241 Pine Street NE
Atlanta, GA 30308

Interested in learning more about green buildings, tour the Southface Eco Office which is designed to use 50 percent less energy and 80 percent less water than traditional office building of its size. For more information, click here.

Zero Waste Week Check-In

RHA Sustainability Chairs

Wednesday, 4/5/2017 at 12pm

Asbury Circle

Join RHA Sustainability Chairs for their Zero Waste Week check-in during Wonderful Wednesday. The goal is to get as many Emory students as possible to limit the amount of waste they produce by committing to produce zero waste for five consecutive days. This means reusing as many products as possible and includes limiting all items you would dispose of including recyclables. By signing the pledge you will receive daily email reminders of tips and advice to be zero waste. You will also receive a sticker, demonstrating your zero waste commitment.

100 Years of Women at Emory:
Progress Marked by Many Milestones
Center for Women

Wednesday, 4/5/17 from 6:30-8:30pm
Woodruff Library, Jones Room, 3rd Floor
This panel discussion with a notable group of Emory leaders will focus on the many ways access to higher education has empowered women, why women's history and voices matter, and what the future of Emory holds with the first female president at the helm.

Jazz on the Green

Emory Arts

Thursday, 4/6/2017 from 1pm to 4pm

Patterson Green

Join Emory Arts in celebrating National Jazz Appreciation Month with outdoor performances by Emory Jazz Ensembles on Patterson Green.

Activities Calendar

Sustainable Atlanta Roundtable

Southface Energy Institute

Friday, 4/7/2017 at 7:30am

Southface Eco Office

Join Southface for their monthly policy and discussion forum. For more information, click here.

Urban Forest Festival

West Atlanta Watershed Alliance

Saturday, 4/11/2017 from 11am-4pm

Outdoor Activity Center

West Atlanta Watershed Alliance, the USDA Forest Service, and the National Wildlife Federation invite you to celebrate southwest Atlanta's urban forests. This event is FREE and OPEN to the public, family-friendly and fun-filled for the whole family! For more information, click here.

Water Symposium and Career Expo

EarthShare Georgia

Thursday, 4/13/2017 from 9:30am-7:00pm

Various Locations

Join EarthShare as they focus on water issues at Earth Day Water Symposium & Career Expo uniting the corporate, university and environmental communities. For more information, click here.

Atlanta March for Science

March for Science Atlanta

Saturday, 4/22/2017 at 12pm

Candler Park

If you can't make the National March for Science in Washington, D.C., support this satellite march organized by volunteers here in Atlanta, GA. For the latest information, click here.

Musical Animals

Michael C. Carlos Museum

Sunday, 4/23/2017 at 4pm

Ackerman Hall

Legendary voice of classical radio in Atlanta Lois Reitzes narrates Ferdinand the Bull and Peter and the Wolf, with pianists Elena Cholakova and William Ransom.

Activities Calendar